

WASHINGTON

The United States LLC is a distinct business entity that offers an alternative to partnerships and corporations by combining the corporate advantages of limited liability with the partnership advantage of pass-through taxation.
Currency :	US Dollar
Language:	English
Type of law:	Common Law
Type of company:	Limited Liability Company (LLC)
Uses:	US LLCs are popular vehicles for conducting international business.
Trading Restrictions:	Not subject to US Federal Tax if the members are non-resident, no business is conducted in the US and has no US source income
Company Name:	Restriction: Cannot be in conflict with pre-existing, company within the State. Not allowed to use words such as bank , trust, insurance or reinsurance. Language: Any languages that use Latin Alphabet. The state may request an English translation if a foreign language name is used. Suffixes: Name should terminate in the words Limited Liability Company or LLC.
Language of legislation and corporate documents	English
Taxation:	US LLCs with non-resident members and which conduct no business in the US and which have no US-source income are not subject to US federal income tax and are not required to file a US income tax return.
Annual license fee:	USD165
Registered Agent/Office:	Must maintain a registered office in the state of incorporation at the office of a registered agent.
Members:	Minimum: One Publicly accessible records: No
Disclosure of Beneficial Owner:	Not publicly available
Managers:	Can be corporate or natural person Nationality: No restriction Publicly accessible records: Yes Location of meetings: No restriction
Secretary :	Local or qualified : No restriction
Annual Reporting :	Must file annual report along with license fee. No requirement to file accounts.

